

419TH FIGHTER WING

The 419th Fighter Wing at Hill Air Force Base is Utah's premier Air Force Reserve unit. We offer a diverse range of combat capability to include operations and maintenance on the Air Force's newest fighter jet, the F-35 Lightning II. We also have a full-spectrum mission support group to include civil engineering, security forces, medical, aerial port, firefighting, supply, and transportation. The 419th is made up of nearly 1,300 Citizen Airmen who serve part time in the military, but are full-time members of the local community. Most of our personnel live, work, and raise families in Northern Utah.

LOCAL

- $82 million to Utah's economy each year
- 90% of personnel live in No. Utah
- Notable employers: Intermountain Healthcare, University of Utah, Zions Bank, Delta Airlines, the Department of Defense, and the State of Utah

READY

- Reservists train one weekend a month and two weeks a year so they're ready to deploy in support of combat operations and humanitarian missions around the world
- We can deploy within 72 hours' notice

EXPERIENCED

- Average 12 years of experience – 50% served on active duty
- Our legacy began in 1955
 - Flown 8 types of aircraft (cargo and fighter)
 - Transitions over 60 years have resulted in invaluable depth and breadth
- Wing boasts 96% retention rate

INTEGRATED

- Full-timers and high experience levels are critical to day-to-day flying operations at Hill AFB
- We deploy side by side with active duty counterparts in the 388th FW
- Shared aircraft, facilities, and infrastructure represent great value to taxpayers

ON THE HORIZON

- Our Airmen are some of the world's leading experts in fifth-generation technology – and we're hiring!
- Ongoing Reserve Component Period (RCP) deployments
- Manning increases: ops, maintenance, and medical
